

February 15, 1951

Dr. Carl Wesley Clark

Carl Wesley Clark was born on June 8, 1888, and passed away on Feb. 10, 1951, in a San Francisco hospital, following a stroke on Feb. 6.

He received his elementary education in a rural school near his home, and was a graduate of Groton high school with the class of 1909. That fall he began his medical course at Vermillion, and finished his Doctor's degree at Rush Medical College in Chicago. During World War I he was stationed in several army hospitals along the East coast. In the spring of 1918 he was married to Charlotte Sherman. To this union two children were born, Carl Sherman and Marianne.

After the close of the war, Dr. Clark began the practise of medicine at Pocatello, Idaho, later moving to California, where he was in practise until Dec. 15, 1950. His wife, Charlotte, died in January, 1936. In the spring of 1938 he was married to Sigrid Thorsen.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sigrid Clark of San Rafael, Calif., and two children, Carl Sherman, also of San Rafael, and Mrs. Davis Box, of San Anselmo; two brothers, John of Groton, and Ray of Putney; two sisters, Mrs. E. D. Schock of Spokane, Wash., and Mrs. A. A. Quintal of Mitchell, S. D., and five grandchildren.